

Commissioning of Funeral Prayer Leaders

This takes place after the homily at Sunday Mass

Archdi[†]ocese of Dublin

Priest:

Brothers and sisters,
today we gather to affirm God's call of those who have been selected to serve as Leaders of Funeral Prayers and Rites.
We pray that as each prayer leader hears their name called they will find the strength in God's grace for service and willing support from this Christian community.
I invite our new Prayer Leaders to come forward and gather around the altar when your name is called.

Each person's name is now called out and they are handed a lighted candle to hold.

QUESTIONS TO PRAYER LEADERS

The priest turns towards the Prayer Leaders

Priest:

Are you willing to serve this community as a Parish Funeral Prayer Leader for the next three years, as a way of responding more fully to your Baptism?

Funeral Prayer Leader: I am

Priest:

Will you work with this community in the ministry of consolation to those who are bereaved?

Funeral Prayer Leader: I will

Priest:

Will you commit to working in partnership with others on the Team and the people of the Parish, especially our ministry groups, and help everyone to place their gifts at the service of the community?

Funeral Prayer Leader: I will

Priest:

Will you be mindful of the importance of accompaniment and preparation so that this pastoral ministry can grow and flourish in this place?

Funeral Prayer Leader: I will

QUESTIONS TO THE ASSEMBLY

The priest turns towards the Assembly

Priest:

My dear brothers and sisters,
these new Funeral Prayer Leaders have responded with generosity to the call of God to serve.
Are you now willing to support them
by your prayer and encouragement, in this special ministry?

People: We are

Priest:

Will you make it your special duty to pray for these Funeral Prayer Leaders?

People: We will

Priest:

Will you do everything you can to assist them practically when invited to do so,
and work together for the building of God's kingdom?

People: We will

SIGNING WITH THE CROSS

The priest turns to the Funeral Prayer Leaders

Priest:

When you were baptised,
you were signed with the Sign of the Cross.
This is a sign that you are called to follow the Lord Jesus and imitate his way of life by serving others.
Once more I now sign you with the Sign of the Cross.
May this sign remind you that you are called to follow in the footsteps of the Master who gave his life to serve others.

The priest now individually signs each person with the Sign of the Cross on the forehead.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Loving God,
You call each one of us to respond to our Baptism
by reaching out to others in service.
We thank you for the generosity of these new Funeral Prayer Leaders who have come forward for service.
May all that they do in their ministry be grounded and rooted in you.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

AMEN
